

CHRISTINE DAGENAIS
MBA, PCC
Managing Director and Certified
Executive Leadership Coach

With over 17 years of experience, Christine is a leader in executive and leadership development and coaches high performing leaders and teams in times of complexity. Over the years she has coached 1000's of senior and executive-level leaders who are from small, large, local and multinational companies.

In her role as Managing Director, she oversees a team of highly skilled executive coaches, strategists and management consultants to help her clients realize their full potential. In addition to her operational leadership role, she builds and manages the company's profile, enhances client engagement and delivers on the company's growth strategies. Christine is also a Sessional Instructor at the University of Calgary's Haskayne School of Business for the Executive MBA Leadership Development Program.

Christine has held previous senior leadership roles in a variety of industries including: hospitality, food and beverage, supply chain, oil and gas and academia which all contribute to providing a balanced and thought-provoking perspective to her clients. She has personally coached over 300 Executive MBA Candidates at the University of Calgary.

Christine is a Certified Professional Coach with a certificate in Executive Coaching from Cornell, a certificate specializing in ontological coaching from the internationally recognized Newfield Coach Training Program (NCC) and is also a Professional Certified Coach (PCC) with the International Coach Federation (ICF). She has a Masters in Business Administration (MBA), with academic distinction, from The University of Calgary's Executive MBA program, and holds a number of industry-related designations including: Myers Briggs Qualified Practitioner, Korn Ferry Profilor 360 Assessment Interpreter, PROSCI certified and is a Gallup Behavioral Interview Specialist.