

HEATHER MCMILLAN

MAED/AET, ACC

Certified Executive Leadership Coach

Passionate about unleashing human potential, Heather uses her expertise and experience to challenge leaders to perform at their best.

BRIGHT WIRE

Heather leverages her passion, and expertise in talent and leadership development to facilitate transformational learning experiences to advance individual and organizational performance.

Before joining Bright Wire, Heather worked in a variety of industries including energy, post-secondary, and all levels of government with a focus on designing and leading organization-wide talent and leadership development strategies.

Heather is a master facilitator, an ICF certified coach, and has held leadership positions in these sectors and is committed to helping leaders expand their capacity and effectiveness through an engaging and empowering approach.

Credentials and Designations

- Associated Certified Coach with the International Coach Federation(ICF)
- Master of Arts in Education/Adult Education and Training, University of Phoenix
- Bachelor of Administration, University of Regina
- Chartered Professional in Human Resources (CPHR)
- Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPCC)
- EQ-i2.0 & EQi-360 certified
- Insights Practitioner
- Certificate in Teaching English as a Second Language, University of Saskatchewan
- Certification in Change Management, AdPro